...HE WAS A REAL PERSON TOO....

SERGEI PROKOFIEV

When he was a little boy, Sergei Prokofiev was afraid of the black keys on the piano. Up to his twenties, he wrote "white music" to be played on the white keys.

He wrote so much popular music, that sometimes forgot his own songs. He would hear a song on the radio and say, "I like that - who wrote it?" His children would laugh and say, "Dad! YOU did!"

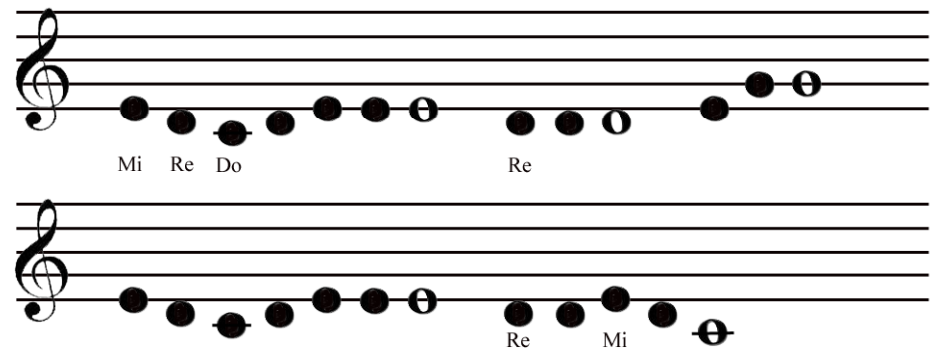

Famous Prokofiev music:
Peter and the Wolf
