PETER TCHAIKOVSKY

Whenever he conducted an orchestra, Peter Tchaikovsky was afraid that his head would fall off! So he would hold on to his head with his left hand while conducting with his right! When he was composing, he would often forget to eat. He said that he did not get hungry because he was baking "musical pancakes" He gave half of all the money he earned to people who needed money for food.

The Nutcracker Suite
The 1812 Overture
